SO ORDERED.

Re: United States v. Cedric Johnson, No. 17 Cr. 466 (PGG)

Dear Judge Gardephe:

Dated: April 14, 2020

The parties and the Probation Office jointly request to adjourn the conference currently scheduled for April 17, 2020, at 4:30 p.m. to a date in June in light of the COVID-19 pandemic and given that Probation is not aware of any additional violations of supervised release since the last court conference on March 4, 2020. As discussed at the last court conference, the defendant was employed at a restaurant. However, due to COVID-19, the restaurant closed on March 21, 2020, and the defendant has since remained at home and is applying for unemployment benefits. The Probation Office is currently unable to test the defendant for controlled substances due to restrictions as to who may enter the Courthouse. The defendant's supervised release is scheduled to expire on June 26, 2020.

Respectfully submitted,

GEOFFREY S. BERMAN
United States Attorney
